President's Message – Dan Macon

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Seventy-seven years ago, in the midst of the Second World War, the U.S. Navy took over the Palace Hotel in San Francisco. In the 160-year history of the California Wool Growers Association, 1943 was the only year we were unable to hold our annual membership meeting – a remarkable record!

Fast-forward to 2020. I don't have to tell you that we are living through unprecedented times.

Given this uncertainty, and given our desire to protect those within our membership who may be most at risk from this pandemic, we'll be holding the 2020 CWGA Annual Convention virtually. Thanks to video conferencing technology, we will be able to conduct the association's business, provide opportunities for learning and socializing, and raise funds for the future of our organization. If our Ram Sale Committee can pull off a successful online California Ram Sale with less than four weeks of lead time, we're confident this year's virtual convention will be a great success!

On August 14, the CWGA board of directors will meet, followed by webinars on the lamb market and on sheep health. We'll cap off the first day with a virtual happy hour! On August 15, our annual membership meeting will include committee reports, a review of our policy resolutions, a financial report and budget review, election of officers, and recognition of award recipients.

We will also have an online fundraiser auction, much like the online Ram Sale. Bidding will open at 8:00 a.m. on August 14 and will begin closing at 4 p.m. on August 15. We are looking for donated items – please contact the CWGA office if you have something you'd like to donate to the fundraiser. I have donated an ABCA-registered border collie puppy, which I will deliver to the lucky buyer!

In 1943, during a world-wide crisis, our organization was unable to meet. During the current world-wide crisis, thanks to technology and the dedication of our staff and volunteers, we'll be able to conduct the organization's business. Thank you for your understanding and support! As always, we welcome your comments and questions – please feel free to contact us!
